The Scott County Historical Society received a grant which funded this project to photograph farmhouses and outbuildings that were built prior to 1950.

Project coordinator was Kim Koster.

Slides, prints and negatives [both black & white and color] are included along with inventories that provide some further detailed descriptions of the structures.

Items were stored in tubs in the basement of Summit Church and were brought to Richardson-Sloane Special Collections Center in April 2012.

Items were removed from 3-ring binders and foldered.
