

#2017-08 Contemporary Club – Immortals Beyond

This is a compilation by Dr. William Roba of biographical materials pertaining to members of the local Contemporary Club that are deceased. The nickname (of sorts) for Club members is “The Immortals”.

Materials came to Special Collections in two business envelopes labeled “Scrapbook #2 and #3” . The information was collected by Roba from 1994-2015. An alphabetical list of names was included with the envelopes, providing the years of birth, death, and age of the Immortals. There were several omissions from the list, so a new list appears below.

Physical Processing: Materials were placed in acid free file folders and placed in alphabetical order. Several of the names that were on the original list had no documentation for that person.
