
IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

DECEMBER 22, 1846.

Read twice, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

AN ACT

For the admission of the State of Iowa into the Union.

Whereas the people of the Territory of Iowa did, on the eighteenth day of May, anno Domini eighteen hundred and forty-six, by a convention of delegates called and assembled for that purpose, form for themselves a constitution and State government—which constitution is republican in its character and features—and said convention has asked admission of the said Territory into the Union as a State, on an equal footing with the original States, in obedience to “An act for the admission of the States of Iowa and Florida into the Union,” approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-five, and “An act to define the boundaries of the State of Iowa, and to repeal so much of the act of the third of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, as relates to the boundaries of Iowa,” which said last act was approved August fourth, anno Domini eighteen hundred and forty-six: Therefore—

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the State of Iowa shall be one, and is hereby declared to be one,
4 of the United States of America, and admitted into the Union
5 on an equal footing with the original States in all respects
6 whatsoever.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions
 2 of "An act supplemental to the act for the admission of the
 3 States of Iowa and Florida into the Union," approved March
 4 third, eighteen hundred and forty-five, be, and the same are
 5 hereby, declared to continue and remain in full force as appli-
 6 cable to the State of Iowa, as hereby admitted and received into
 7 the Union.

Passed the House of Representatives December 21, 1846.

Attest:

B. B. FRENCH, Clerk.
